Dear Mrs. Manley:

I had a call from a dealer in used buses.

He told me that he had a very good Mack bus, year 1935, that was in excellent condition. It has a seating capacity for sixteen persons. This, of course, does not include the driver. This party claims that the bus is in first-class condition and has been passed upon by the Transit Commission.

A short while ago I understood you to say that you thought you would have to purchase a bus this season.

The party has quoted a price of $750.00 for the same, and if you are interested in looking at it, I'll be glad to send you the name and address of the place where it is kept.

Very truly yours,

W. A. Leuschner
